

Coimbra Group Social Sciences and Humanities Working Group's seminar

New Narratives for a Damaged Planet:

Humanities and Social Sciences Perspectives on the Climate Crisis

Jagiellonian University, Krakow 16-17.11.2023

Venue: Collegium Novum, Gołębia 24, room 30 (1st floor)

Programme:

Thursday 16.11.2023

14.00 registration

14.30 welcome

Opening remarks by: Prof. Dorota Malec (vice-rector of Jagiellonian University) & Prof. Raul Sanchez Prieto (vice-rector of the University of Salamanca, chair of CG SSH WG)

14.45 keynote: Prof. Anna Nacher (Jagiellonian University) New media art in the times of climate disruption

15.30-16.45 session I

Katarzyna Wodniak (Trinity College Dublin) Cooperatives 2.0

Svetlana Baranova (Jagiellonian University) Bridging the Gap: Art and Climate Change Awareness.

Michał Pałasz and Jakub Wydra (Jagiellonian University) Plurinarratives / Polynarratives. Pluriversal Degrowth Approach to Polycrisis

Chair: Pekka Rasanen (University of Turku)

Friday 17.11.2023

9.30 keynote session:

Prof. Werner Scholtz (University of Southampton) Climate Change Challenges and International Environmental Law: Obstacles Crafting Opportunity

Prof. María Carmen Velayos Castelo (University of Salamanca) Current problems and proposals on climate justice

Followed by Q&A

11.00 coffee break

11.15 session II

Nikola Petrović (Institute for Social Research in Zagreb) Climate Crisis, Green Economy and Pluralization of Worldviews

Núria Prat Bau and Belen Parra Ramajo (Universitat de Barcelona) Civilizational crisis: social work and environmental injustice

Chair: Natasza Styczyńska (Jagiellonian University)